At one o'clock, Holmes comes back and he looks much happier. He has a paper in his hand with numbers on it.

'Look. Watson. This is the money from the dead wife's will. It's about £750 in today's money. £250 goes to Julia and £250 to Helen when they marry. That leaves very little for Dr Roylott. Is he our killer? We must move quickly. Helen is right to be afraid of her stepfather."

Holmes and Watson go to Waterloo. They take a train to Leatherhead and from there they go by trap through the country. After a few miles. Holmes suddenly looks through the trees and he cries excitedly to his friend. There it is was also Watson! Do you see it?"
