English as a Second Language (ESL)

At Cambridge University Press we provide resources to support you, and your students as they develop the skills required to study in English across the curriculum from Primary to pre-University. Cambridge Global English (Stages 1–9) provides cross-curricular content for Primary and Secondary 1 learners. Introduction to English as a Second Language prepares Secondary 1 learners for the challenges they will face as 14–16 year olds. We offer an unbeatable choice for Cambridge IGCSE® with a full range that now includes exam preparation and practice resources. Literacy is supported through original and traditional literature at both Primary and Secondary.

Cambridge Global English 1–9

Written specifically for ESL learners, with clear language, helpful visuals and grammar and vocabulary support. Learners explore topics from great expeditions to the night sky, developing the speaking, listening, reading and writing skills to study in English across the curriculum. This nine stage course supports learners from Primary (CEFR levels A1 to B1) through to Secondary 1 (CEFR levels B1 to lower B2) and follows the Cambridge English as a Second Language curriculum framework.

Cambridge Reading Adventures

Cambridge Reading Adventures, a reading programme for 3–13 year olds from Pre-A1 to B1, was developed in collaboration with the UCL Institute of Education.

The books have been precisely levelled into eleven bands following the International Literacy Centre's Book Band Framework. The series includes fiction and non-fiction topics, on a wide range of subjects. Stories are set in international contexts, including traditional and animal tales, contemporary or historic settings, as well as non-fiction reports and explanations. The scheme is mapped to the vocabulary and grammar requirements of the YLE framework.
