Macmillan Writing Series

DOROTHY E. ZEMACH, DANIEL BROUDY, CARLOS ISLAM, ROBYN BRINKS LOCKWOOD, LISA A. GHULLDU, CHRIS VALVONA

Macmillan Writing Series is a 4-level course designed to help young adults and adult learners use English in an academic context with step-by-step guidance and engaging practice exercises.

By offering training in a range of new skills, including how to brainstorm ideas and arrange them, write long and short-form texts and share information, Macmillan Writing Series provides students who need to improve their academic skills with the tools they need to succeed. The course gradually develops students' writing, from basic sentence construction right through to writing full academic research papers.

- A 'start to finish' systematic approach offers clarity to students, helping them to organise their learning and develop skills in a comprehensive way.
- The end of each unit provides students with an opportunity to use the grammar and vocabulary, sentence and paragraph structures they have learned in engaging writing tasks.
- Vocabulary is thematically structured to help students learn it more efficiently and use it to create writing passages.
- The comprehensive Teacher's Guide includes step-by-step notes and activities, a full answer-key and photocopiable peer review forms, as well as suggestions for extra learning activities.
- Each Student's Book contains an appendix, complete with a verb chart that highlights irregular past tense verb forms and particles for easy reference.

Communicate

KATE PICKERING

- Each section has a special focus on speaking, with relevant topics selected to engage and motivate students to communicate confidently.
- The functional language focus provides students with vocabulary they can use in everyday situations.
- There are three sections to each video topic: a short introductory film; an interactive area with comprehension questions, functional language and pronunciation tasks; and an additional interview-style film.
- The Phrase bank and Language note provide helpful hints about more problematic language areas.
- The Prepare To activities, regular progress checks and a summary wordlist help students consolidate knowledge and build their confidence to communicate in English.
