Oxford Grammar for Schools

NEW LEVELS

BEGINNER TO INTERMEDIATE (A1–B1)

MARTIN MOORE, LIZ KILBEY AND RACHEL GODFREY

A five-level grammar series that uses clear explanations, communicative activities and engaging illustrations to help young learners and teenagers understand and practise grammar. As students activate their grammar through listening, speaking, reading and writing activities, they activate their English.

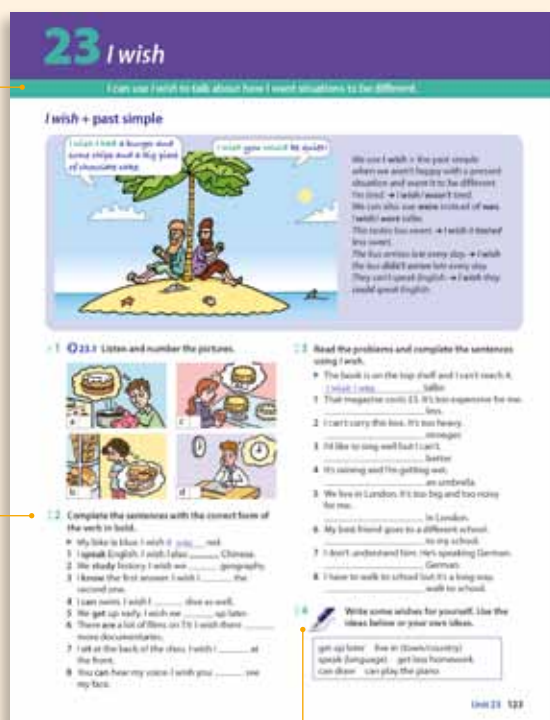

Oxford Grammar for Schools gives teenage and younger learners the opportunity to explore grammar for themselves and encourages them to be aware of their progress through regular self-evaluation and review.

- Presents each grammar point in context with activities to check understanding, often in a communicative way.
- Provides opportunities for students to use the grammar in activities that involve listening, speaking, reading and writing.
- Includes regular revision units with exam-style questions that are appropriate for the level (Starters for Level 1, through to Preliminary for Schools at Levels 4 and 5).

- Includes activities towards the end of the unit and in the revision units to practise more than one grammar topic.
- Student's DVD-ROM builds on the practice in the Student's Book. It includes all the Student's Book material, including the audio, as well as extra activities which students can complete for homework, then print and bring to class.
- Student's DVD-ROM can also be used as a classroom presentation tool (iTools), with the option for teachers to upload their own material to flipcharts.
- Syllabus supports and extends the grammar coverage of secondary coursebooks including Incredible English, Solutions and English Plus.
- Photocopiable tests provide regular revision and help students prepare for exams.

Clear 'I can' statements show the learning outcome of each unit

20 Quantifiers

All, most, some, a lot of, any, a few, a little

- Some examples of sentences with these quantifiers:
I bought some fruit in the market.
I ate some of the apples and I kept a few of them.
We worked hard all day.
- We can use all, most, some, a lot of and any in these patterns:
+ noun
I bought some new clothes last week.
+ of + the/possessive + noun
You haven't eaten any of your meat.
+ of it/them
We looked for a hotel but most of them were full.
It is not necessary to use 'of' after all with a noun but we must use 'of' before 'it/them':
I got all of the questions right. / I got all of them right.
- We use a few in these patterns:
+ plural noun
I read a few magazines yesterday.
+ of + the/possessive + plural noun
A few of the people in my class do judo.
+ of them
There were a lot of good books in the shop and I bought a few of them.
- We use a little + uncountable noun:
I've only got a little money left.
- We use some with positive verbs and any with negative verbs and in questions:
Have you got any milk or sugar? – Well, I've got some sugar but I haven't got any milk.
- We do not use these patterns:
the most, etc. + noun (not the most people / the most money)
the most, etc. of + noun (not the most of people / the most of money) most, etc. of + noun (not the most of people / the most of money)
In all these examples, we say most people or most of the people.

Grammar in action

- We use all, most, some, a lot of and any to talk or ask about the amount or number of something when we don't give an exact amount or number:
Have you done all (of) the ironing?
– No, I've done most of it, but I've got some shirts to do.
- We use the pattern all day/morning/night/week/year, etc. to talk about whole periods of time:
It rained all night. (not the night)

A Some facts about my job

- Underline the correct words in what a young woman says about her job.
- Most* / Most of days I start at 7 a.m. but some / some of the days I don't start until 8 a.m.
 - I write a lot of / a lot of reports and I've spent most of / most of the day writing one.
 - Sometimes it's hard to do all of / all of the ironing.
 - Some* / Some of days are very difficult but sometimes I don't have any / any of problems.
 - I spend a lot of / a lot of my time talking on the phone.
 - I get on well with all of / all of the people at work and most of / most of them are friends.
 - Sometimes I'm very busy and I don't have any / any lunch.
 - Sometimes I spend all of / all of the day in meetings.
 - If I don't have any / any of work to do, I can go home early.
